Terms and Conditions

COVID-19: We would ask all participants to undertake the necessary number of lateral flow tests before attending.

Booking: Confirmation of the course place will be made by e-mail in which paypal/BACS details for payment will be given.

Payment Terms: A 50% non-refundable deposit of the course fee is payable at the time of booking with full payment required at least 6 weeks before the course. The fee is non-refundable but may be transferred to a different course if you cancel more than 4 weeks prior to the course. In the case of cancellation less than 4 weeks prior to the course the course fee is non-refundable, although you could find a friend to attend in your place. If you are booked on a course and do not turn up on the day, then no refund or transfer will be given.

Cancellation Policy: We reserve the right to cancel or move a class or workshop due to unforeseen circumstances including illness. Please note, at least 6 students are needed to make a class financially viable to run. In the event of under-subscription, classes may be cancelled or postponed. We will give you as much notice as possible should this happen and you will be able to transfer to another course or receive a full refund. We cannot be held liable for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred as a result of class cancellation. Where a course is cancelled we will email or phone you as soon as possible.
